

SUBJECT: Reorganization - The Office of the Chief Information Officer and High Performance Computing and Communications

TO: Office of the Under Secretary
Staff Office of the Under Secretary
Administrative Delivery Points

Effective February 3, 2008, the Office of the Chief Information Officer and High Performance Computing and Communications (CIO-HPCC) is being reorganized. There are five offices being renamed. The Planning and Analysis Office to Policy, Planning and Analysis Office, the Planning and Architecture Division to Planning Division, IT Operations Office to IT Program Management Office, the Enterprise Networking/Server Division to Enterprise Projects Division, and the Operations Branch to Operations Support Branch. The offices being established are the Enterprise Architecture Office and the Business Management Office. The Homeland Security moved from under CIO-HPCC and is being renamed the Homeland Security Program Office.

The organization and related code structures are revised as follows:
