

SUBJECT: National Ocean Service
 Office for Coastal Management
 National Marine Sanctuaries

TO: Office of the Under Secretary
 Staff Offices of the Under Secretary
 Administrative Delivery Points

Effective September 28, 2014, the National Ocean Service, Office of Ocean and Coastal Resource Management (OCRM) and NOAA Coastal Services Center (CSC) are being abolished. The two offices are being consolidated into the Office for Coastal Management (OCM).

This also includes a realignment of the current structure of the National Ocean Service, Office of National Marine Sanctuaries (ONMS) headquarters to the priority functions and strategic directions of the office by formalizing key functional areas including the National Marine Protected Areas Center and the Administrative Operations Division; realigning appropriate staff from the Communications, Education, and Outreach Division; and renaming organizational units to better align with current functions. All changes are indicated in bold lettering and strike through font.

The three organizations and related codes structures are revised as follows:
