

SUBJECT: Reorganization – National Marine Fisheries Service,
Office of Science and Technology

TO: Office of the Under Secretary
Staff Offices of the Under Secretary
Administrative Delivery Points

Effective April 19, 2015, the National Marine Fisheries Service, Office of Science and Technology (OST) will be reorganized. In 2004, Circular 04-01 abolished the International Science Coordination and Analysis Division, the Research Analysis and Coordination Division, and the Scientific and Publications Unit in OST. The organization codes and functional statements were successfully removed from the NOAA Organization Handbook; however, were not removed from the NOA-094, and the Commerce Business System (CBS). Consequently, this circular will correct the systems by abolishing and renaming existing organization structures.

- Abolish the Research Analysis and Coordination Division
- Abolish the Scientific and Publications Unit
- Rename the International Science Coordination and Analysis Division

The organization and related code structures are revised as follows:
