CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

For more information please contact Eugene Vu: Eugene.Vu@Associates.DHS.GOV or Brenda Creavalle: Brenda.Creavalle@Associates.DHS.GOV.

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Adminstrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

For more information please contact Eugene Vu: Eugene.Vu@Associates.DHS.GOV or Brenda Creavalle: Brenda.Creavalle@Associates.DHS.GOV.

Department of Homeland Security Federal Protective Service Security Bill

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

CHANGE IN SECURITY BILLING

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.

Effective with the July FY11 billing cycle you may notice a change in the Basic Security and Building Security fees due to the transitioning from STAR (System for Tracking and Administrating Real Property) to REXUS (Real Estate Across the United States). This change will align the DHS Security Charge Basis with the GSA Rent bill Charge Basis.

As a result of this change, your security bill charge basis will be based on the combination of the Market Rent (space you occupy) and your share of Joint Use space as indicated by your rent bill.

To estimate the monthly change in your Basic Security bill, you can multiply the current rate of $0.66 by the rent bill Charge Basis and divide by twelve. The Building Specific Security charge will remain based on the percentage of sq. ft. assigned to you. The actual cost may change based on the change in sq. ft. assigned in STAR vs. REXUS.

We regret the impacts this may cause you and appreciate your understanding of the requirement to move to REXUS.
